[SEPTEMBER, MDCCLXVI.] [NUMB. 40.]

THE SOUTH-CAROLINA AND COUNTRY GAZETTE; JOURNAL.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1766.

PARIS, JUNE 20.

THE following Account has been received by the Eaſt-India Company from Baron Law de Lauriſton, his Majeſty's Commiſſary and Commandant-General of the French Settlements in India, in a Letter from Chandernagor, dated Auguſt 31, 1765.

"The Scyques, an idolatrous People, inhabiting the Neighbourhood of Lahors and Cachemire, whoſe Name was hardly known two Years ago, have beaten Abdaly and the Patenes, whom he commanded: They afterwards took Poſſeſſion of Lahors, and have ſince made a Conqueſt of Delhy, with an Army of above 200,000 Men: And it is ſaid they have maſſacred all the Deſcendants of Tamerlane. The Scyques are a particular Sect, like the Rajipoutes, the Djattes, &c. but are leſs ſuperſtitious, for they exclude Nobody from their Society, but admit Chriſtians, Mahometans, and Idolaters indiſcriminately. They wear long Beards and long Hair, and eat all Kinds of Food. They have no Chief, but are governed by four of the Principal of their own Sect, which are elected yearly, or perhaps every three Years by the People. Their King or Legiſlature is repreſented by a great Book, which they place upon a Stool in the Middle of their Aſſembly, with a Sabre, Shield and Poinguard, upon it.—The four Councillors open this Book, and read, or pretend to read, then deliberate, and announce the Orders of the King to the People, who are obliged to ſubmit to them on Pain of incurring the Diſpleaſure of the Divinity.——The Scyques, however, have not followed this Cuſtom at Delhy, but have placed upon the Throne of the Mogul, a Prince named Gobinſingue, who has already had Rupees ſtruck with his Inſcription."

Ratiſbon, June 19. According to ſome Advices from Hungary, there have been great Diſorders and Diſturbances in that Kingdom. A Body of Inſurgents is ſaid to have pillaged the Caſtle of Prince Eſterhazy, ſituated between Funfkirchen and Subl-Weiſſenbourgh, and likewiſe his Caſtle at Scheitern, from whence that Prince retired to Eiſenſtadt, after ſigning ſome Articles that were preſented to him.

Copenhagen, May 26. The Baron Peter de Clauſſen, Colonel of Foot, is appointed by his Majeſty, Governor-General of the Iſland of St. Croix, St. Thomas, and St. John, all in the Weſt-Indies.

Naples, May 20. The Duke de la Miranda, who accompanied the preſent King of Spain in his Paſſage from this Kingdom, is arrived here from Madrid; although he is a Native of Spain, he has thought proper to retire from thence in theſe Times of Tumult, in order to enjoy Tranquillity in this Capital.

Berlin, June 10. Sir Andrew Mitchel, who is a ſecond Time appointed Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the King of Great-Britain to this Court, arrived here the 7th Inſtant.

LONDON, JUNE 10.

LETTERS from Wurtemberg adviſe, that the Duke has been prevailed on to diſplace the Count de Montmartin, his Favourite and Prime Miniſter; ſince which Event there are more Hopes than ever of ſeeing an End put to the Diſſentions which have long prevailed between that Prince and his States.

The Sieur Durand is appointed to tranſact here the Affairs of the Court of France, during the Abſence of the Count de Guerchy, the French Ambaſſador, who will ſet out in a few Days for Paris.

Some Accounts from Spain informs, that freſh Troubles had broke out in the Province of Eſtramadura.

They write from Paris, that moſt of the Accounts propagated concerning General Lally, are downright Fictions, particularly thoſe which ſpeak of the People's being ready to riſe there, &c. It is true, indeed, that many of them think he has fallen a Sacrifice to Court Intrigue, and to cover the Faults of others.

The Report induſtriouſly ſpread of a Coolneſs between Mr. Wilkes and a ſtaunch Friend of his, is totally void of all Truth, and only propagated, it is ſaid, to cover the Shame and Ingratitude of thoſe for whom he has made a Bed of Roſes, and who, to their eternal Diſhonour, ſuffer him ſtill to lye on a Bed of Thorns, notwithſtanding all their Promiſes to the contrary; and that the true Reaſon of Mr. Wilkes's Departure was owing to the Advice of two eminent Lawyers, after two long Conſultations, on the Wedneſday Night and Thurſday Morning preceeding his Departure, at both which his Friends attended.

A few Days ſince, the Workmen, who were making ſome Repairs in Wincheſter College, diſcovered a Monument, in which was contained the Body of Canute, King of England; it was remarkably freſh, had a Wreath round the Head, and ſeveral other Ornaments of Gold and Silver Bands, together with a Ring on his Finger, with a remarkable large fine Stone in it; alſo in one of his Hands was a Silver Penny.

A few Days ſince was married Mr. Lloyd, a wealthy Farmer, at Long Millington, in Eſſex, to Miſs Thompſon, after a Courtſhip of twenty-two Years.

June 14. Letters from Leghorn adviſe, that when General Paſchal Paoli was inveſted with the Character of Doge, the Deputies of the States at the ſame Time, renewed the ſolemn Oath heretofore taken at their General Aſſemblies at Corte, never to make Peace with the Republick of Genoa, unleſs conſidered in the Character of a free State.

They write from Dumfermling, in Scotland, that ſome Days ago, as ſome Labourers were digging a Piece of Ground on the Spot where the Eaſt Part of the Church ſtood, they diſcovered a Human Body entire, which appeared to be a Female. It was encloſed in a Stone Coffin, covered with three Flag Stones, on which could eaſily be diſcovered a Crucifix, with ſome other Figures or Letters, ſo much defaced as not to be underſtood. Several Gentlemen in the Neighbourhood have viſited this Curioſity, and, from various Circumſtances, have Reaſon to believe it to be the Body of Queen Margaret, Wife of Malcolm Keanmore, who was buried at Dumfermling, and who afterwards was canonized, and known by the Name of St. Margaret. This we know that at Dumfermling many of the Royal Family of Scotland lye interred; and among them St. Margaret is particularly mentioned. This Margaret was Grand-daughter of Edmund Ironſide, King of England. After the fatal Battle of Haſtings, having every Thing to fear from William the Conqueror, ſhe, with her Brother and Siſter, ſecretly retired from the Kingdom with a View of going to the Continent, but by tempeſtuous Weather was forced on the Coaſt of Scotland, and for Safety ran up the Frith of Forth, to a Creek near Dumfermling, ever ſince known by the Name of St. Margaret's Hope. They were kindly received by King Malcolm, then reſiding at Dumfermling, who, on Account of the many ſhining Virtues of Margaret, ſome Time after married her. She is celebrated as the moſt virtuous Princeſs of the Age; and her Piety and Charity, with her Reſpect for the Clergy, procured her at her Death the Honour of Canonization.

June 17. It is ſaid that the real Cauſe of a late Reſignation was owing to the Efforts made by the noble Perſon, in Behalf of an unfortunate Exile, and which being unable to crown with Succeſs, he choſe to reſign, rather than be connected with Meaſures, which another took upon him to guide.

Part of a Letter from Gibraltar of the firſt of May laſt; "I find on reading ſome News-Papers, that the Accounts of our Storm of the 30th of January laſt, were greatly exaggerated: It was really ſhocking, and fifty Perſons loſt their Lives by it; but we have entirely got the better of it, as well as of our neighbour Governor, who is diſmiſſed from his Command. Our Works, &c. by the Vigilance of our Governor, are not only in a Condition of Defence, but Offence, if Occaſion require."

They write from Peterſburgh, that Sir George M'Cartney, the Britiſh Miniſter, is to be honoured by her Imperial Majeſty with one of the firſt vacant Knights-Military Orders of Ruſſia.

It is confidently reported, that Lord Charles Greville Montagu, is appointed Governor of Jamaica, in the Room of William-Henry Lyttelton, Eſq; who is coming Home.

We hear, that the Commander and Officers on board the Dolphin, have during their late Voyage, corrected the Meridians of a great Number of Places, which had been erroneouſly marked in the different Charts of the South Seas.

The Honourable Commodore Byron has given Orders for all his Midſhipmen to attend the Admiralty-Office to be paſſed for Lieutenants; and they are to receive their Commiſſions on the firſt Vacancies.

June 19. By Letters from Rome, Sir James M'Donald, of Slate and the Iſles, Baronet, was arrived there on his Travels.

We hear the Honourable Commodore Byron, before his Departure from the new diſcovered Iſland, directed Stone Obeliſks to be erected at the Watering-Place, and along the Shore, with Plates of Copper, declaring it the Property of the Crown of Great-Britain.

On Monday laſt died at Bath, in his thirty-ſecond Year, the Right Honourable William Earl of Sutherland, a Lieutenant-Colonel, Aid de Camp to his Majeſty, and one of the ſixteen Peers of Scotland. His Lady whom he married April 1761, died about a Fortnight ago. Their Bodies are to be embalmed, in order to their being carried to Scotland, and interred at Dunrobin, the Burial-Place of the Family. They were a very amiable and a very happy Pair; and have left Iſſue only one Daughter, an Infant, now Counteſs of Sutherland.

It is ſaid the Duke of Gordon will be elected one of the ſixteen Peers of Scotland, in the Room of Lord Sutherland, deceaſed.

The following political Connections ſeems hitherto to have eſcaped the Notice of the Publick: That the Duke of Richmond, one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, married the Daughter of the preſent Counteſs Dowager of Ayleſbury, who is married to Mr. Secretary Conway; that the Duke of Richmond is Brother-in-Law to Lord Holland, who is married to his Grace's Siſter; that the Marquis of Rockingham, firſt Lord of the Treaſury, is Nephew to the Earl of Winchelſea, Preſident of the Council, and to Lord Mansfield; and that the Connection ſubſiſting between his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, Lord Mansfield, and Earl Bute, is well known.

It is aſſerted, that the Jeſuits have lodged near a Million Sterling in our Funds ſince their Routing out of Portugal and France; which it is ſuppoſed will continue there till they can execute their Plan.

Among the Variety of natural Productions brought from Scotland by a Gentleman, is that of the Aſbeſtos, ſo well known to the Ancients, by its Duration after being tried in the Fire. Although it is of the Nature of a Stone, yet, by a certain Preparation, is diſſolved into ſomething like Cotton, and may be wrought into a Cloth. This Gentleman, we are informed, has ſome of it made into Paper, and has invented a red Ink with which it may be wrote upon, and after being in the Fire comes out pure and entire, but the Letters are then of a black Colour.

Yeſterday at a Court of Proprietors of the Eaſt-India Company, the ſeveral Letters wrote by Lord Clive, and the Treaties made by him, were read; by which it appeared, that Peace is entirely eſtabliſhed in that Country, and very great Advantages are got by him for the Benefit of the Company, to the Amount of at leaſt one Million and an Half yearly, excluſive of all Expences; beſides 500,000 l. in ready Money. Upon which a Motion was made to encreaſe the Dividends two per Cent per Annum, to commence at Chriſtmas next; but the Directors being of Opinion it would be more prudent to poſtpone it for the preſent, it was unanimouſly agreed to.

They write from Peterſburgh, that ſeveral hundred Jew Families ſet out lately, eſcorted by a Party of Ruſſian Horſe, for the new Settlement allotted them by her Imperial Majeſty, on the Banks of the River Baical, in Siberia.

They write from Hamburgh, that Count Tottleben was arrived there, and after a ſhort Stay propoſed to ſet out for London.

We hear that Lord Mount Steuart, eldeſt Son to the Earl of Bute, is ſhortly to be married to the only Daughter of the late Lord Windſor, an Heireſs of 5000 l. a Year.

This Morning two Companies of Matroſſes embarked on board the Tranſport Ships at Woolwich, to proceed round to Portſmouth, where they are to be joined by the Reſt of the Troops ordered to America.

By the Ships lately arrived from China, we learn, that the French underſell us there in many Sorts of Woollen Goods.

The Arrival of ſo many Eaſt-India Ships at one Time, it is imagined will lower the Price of Teas conſiderably at the next Company Sales.

June 21. Tueſday arrived at his Excellency the Count de Guerchy's, the Prince de Croiſy, and the Duke de Havre, his Son-in-Law, from France. Theſe two Noblemen are come to ſpend ſome Time, in order to ſee England. They were accompanied by Mr. Durand, who is to reſide here as Plenipotentiary during the Abſence of Count de Guerchy, who is to ſet out on Wedneſday next for France.

Letters from Peterſburgh ſay, that her Imperial Majeſty, out of her great Regard for literary Merit, has lately ſent the Order of St. Anne to M. de Voltaire, accompanied with a valuable Preſent.

Great Honours are paid at Naples by the Nobility to the Marquis de Squillace, and his Sons. Among other Preſents which they have made the Father, are ſixty fine Horſes.

Wedneſday a large Number of Agnus Dei's, Crucifixes, Beads, and other Trumperiorums of Popery, ingeniouſly turned in Bone, Ivory and Ebony, which had been juſt imported from France, were ſeized in Southwark by two Officers of the Cuſtoms.

Yeſterday the Prince de Croiſy, and the Duke de Havre, who lately arrived in Town from France, were introduced to his Majeſty at St. James's.

Her Majeſty is ſo far happily advanced in her Pregnancy, that it is expected ſhe will lie-in in September or October next.

The Office of Secretary of State, for the Northern Department, is now removed to Cleveland Court; and the Office for the Southern Department, is held in Privy-Garden.

Yeſterday died, in Margaret-ſtreet, Cavendiſh-ſquare, Jonathan Edwards, Eſq; formerly a conſiderable Rice Merchant in South-Carolina.

Lieutenant-Colonel William Dalrymple is to go over to America, to command the 14th, or General Kepple's, Regiment of Foot.

This Day the Count Guerchy, the French Ambaſſador, gave a grand Entertainment to the Nobility, &c. at his Houſe in Soho-ſquare, and To-morrow his Excellency will ſet out for France.

At the new Fair at Appleby, on Tueſday the 10th Inſt. there was the greateſt Shew of Sheep ever known; and it is computed that upwards of 40,000 were ſold; and good Horſes and Black Cattle, ſold very dear. This is now one of the greateſt Fairs in the North of England.

June 25. It is ſaid that ſome extraordinary Diſpatches for the Government arrived on Monday from the Court of Spain.

We are informed that ——— Moore, Eſq; is appointed Collector of the Cuſtoms for Dominica; and Marſh Napleton, Eſq; Naval Officer for the ſame Iſland. The Poſt of Surveyor-General is not yet filled up.

The Diſpatch, Captain Keith Wray, ſent Expreſs by the North-American Merchants, which ſailed from Plymouth the 20th of March, ſprung a Leak in Lat. 29, Long. 51, Weſt, was on the 13th of May aſſiſted by the Elizabeth, Captain Brown, from St. Kitts, who arrived at Briſtol the 21ſt Inſtant.

Yeſterday was determined, before Lord Camden, in the Court of Common Pleas, Weſtminſter, a Cauſe wherein a Gentleman was Plaintiff, and a Lawyer Defendant; the Action was brought for delaying the Plaintiff's Cauſe, and it being proved to the Loſs of 3000 l. a Verdict of 1500 l. Damages was given to the Plaintiff.

June 26. Letters from Gibraltar mention, that the States of Barbary under the Protection of the Ottoman Porte, had been ordered by the Divan at Conſtantinople, to provide their reſpective Tributes of Money and Troops, for the immediate Service of the Grand Seignior.

Never was there a Time in this Nation like the preſent; the Spirit of Avarice and Rapine ſeems to have ſeized and taken faſt hold of the Souls of all the People; every one diſregards and contemns the Laws, as if they did not exiſt, and puts his own iniquitous Plans in Practice.

June 28. The Hague Gazette, under the Head London, June 13th, ſays, "Some Perſons pretend to be aſſured, that the King of Prussia has made Instances to our Court to induce it to cede to him one of the British Islands in America; and that there is great Appearance that his Demand will be complied with."

The last Salmon Smack which arrived from Inverness, brought no less than 11,000 live Lobsters with her, an Article of Profit to that Coast which they knew nothing of till within these few Years.

We hear that an unfortunate Exile, during his late Stay in London, had Intimations from a certain Nobleman, that if he would agree to a certain Proposition, he should not only be restored to the Liberty of breathing his native Air, but should have more substantial Honours conferred on him than he had ever yet enjoyed. One of these Propositions was, that he should serve his pretended Friends in their Kind, by deserting both them and their Cause, and enter into the Views of those, whom, upon Trial, he should find more grateful than those who made him the Ladder to climb to their present Preferments: To which he returned this truly noble Answer, with that Ardour and Spirit so peculiar to him; That though the Behaviour of his Friends was such as he little expected, yet it should never provoke him to desert the glorious Cause of Liberty, and his Country, for which he would chearfully suffer not only perpetual Banishment, but even a worse Death, if possible, than was inflicted upon that immortal Roman Patriot Attilius Regulus.

It is said that David Hume, Esq; will have the Care of the English Affairs at Paris, till the Arrival of another Ambassador.

A Gentleman lately arrived from Brest assures us, that there are actually now in that Port eighty Ships of the Line, many of them of a very large Force, in particular six of 112 Guns each.

Advice is said to have been received, that the King of Tanjour on the Arrival of the East-India Company's Forces in his Territories, agreed to pay them the Tribute demanded.

July 1. The Return expected this Year from China, from the good Conduct of the Directors of the East-India Company, and the great Ability of Lord Clive, may be fairly estimated at near two Millions Sterling, and those from Bengal and Madrass, by the Middlesex, &c. at a Million and an Half. The Sum of between two or three hundred thousand pounds is also lett in China for an Investment of next Year; and fifteen Ships from China have, above their Charter-party, near three thousand Tons of Surplus Tonnage, besides five or six hundred Bales of raw Silk, a Commodity very valuable to this Country, and particularly seasonable at the present Juncture, when the wise Regulations of Government have precluded the Importation of French Silks. Of the Cargoes from China, Madrass and Bengal, arrived, and on their Way home, seven-eighths, at least, will be to the Company a clear Profit, the said Cargoes having been purchased with the Monies arising from its Revenue in Asia.

We hear, that the Terms upon which the great Commoner may now take the Lead in the Administration are such as he cannot, consistent with his avowed Principles, and the Duty he owes his King and Country, refuse accepting; if so, there is no Doubt but his patriot Heart feels too much for the Miseries of his native Country, not to accept of an Employment which will put it in his Power to put an End to them.

It is said, that a great Person's Resignation of a high Employment, was not owing to such a virtuous honourable Motive, as the being unsuccessful in endeavouring to procure the Reconciliation of an unfortunate Exile to his offended Sovereign, as was asserted in the publick Papers. This is well known by those that are in the Secret of Affairs, and the Publick will not remain long in Ignorance of the real Cause of this, and other late Resignations.

Last Sunday the Reverend Mr. Whitaker, and the Revd. Mr. Occum, the Indian, preached at the Revd. Mr. Brewer's Meeting at Stepney, where there was a Collection for the Indian Schools in America, they collected 133 l. 9. 6d.

July 2. All the Dutch Gazettes, by Yesterday's Mail, contain the Account said to be received by the French East-India Company, from the Paris Gazette; but at the same Time, the Hollanders think as we do, that if such an extraordinary Revolution has really happened, it is very surprizing that the Letters, which the English East-India Company has received from Indostan, and which are dated in the Month of October, 1765, should not make the least Mention of it.

We hear, that the intended Settlements of British Merchants upon the River Wolga, for trading to Astracan and Persia, will be upon the same Plan, as that for which an Act of Parliament was obtained in 1738, when Jonas Hanway, Esq; went over, and remained some Years in Persia; but at last was obliged to leave it on Account of the Usurpation of Kouli Khan, and an Edict of the Empress Elizabeth of Russia, which prohibited carrying on such a Trade thro' her Dominions. During Mr. Hanway's Stay the Trade appeared to turn out very considerable for the Sale of British Manufactures; in Return for which they received raw Silk, &c. which was shipped on the Caspian Sea, and from thence transported up the Wolga, and carried to Petersburgh, from whence it was brought to London, infinitely cheaper than it can be had at Smyrna, or Aleppo, from the Armenian Merchants, who engross the Trade, and bring it there from Persia.

July 3. Dr. Pollock is appointed first Master of the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich, in the Room of Mr. Miller, who retires.

A Letter from New-York says, That the Scots, who are very numerous in all the American Colonies, on receiving the celebrated Speech of the great Patriot for the Repeal of the Stamp-Act, in which he pays a Compliment to their Country, where he found a Race of brave Men, which he drew from the Mountains of the North, expressed the highest Satisfaction.

It is said his Royal Highness the Duke of York, after making the Tour of Wales, will proceed to the North of England, and to the South of Scotland, as far as Edinburgh, Sterling, Glasgow, &c.

It is said his Majesty will make a present to his Royal Brother the Duke of Gloucester, of several curious Manuscripts, Plans, Orders, &c. relating to the Art of War, found among the Papers of his late Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, and particularly calculated for the heroic Suits of British Troops.

July 4. Several magnificent Suits of Cloths are now making up for her Royal Highness Princess Louisa, which are to be entirely of British Manufactures. And it is now said to be certain, that her approaching Nuptials with the Prince of Orange, will be celebrated in London.

We are credibly informed, that Mr. [illegible] during his various Administration, never received to his own [illegible] of the Profits or Emoluments belonging to his Office, except the bare Salary that every Body knows to be annexed to it, he having always caused to be deposited in the Treasury, for publick Use, all the Money allowed him for secret Service, together with all the Perquisites of his Office, many thousands of which have ever since, and still remain in the Treasury; nor would any of the Ministry, since his Resignation, take upon themselves to dispose of, or meddle with it, lest this generous inflexible Patriot should again become Prime Minister, and call them to account for it, as none but him has a Right to dispose of it. The Annals of this Country cannot produce such another Instance of ministerial Disinterestedness and publick Spirit, though France can boast her Duke of Sully, who, perhaps was the only Minister, that has ever displayed the patriotick Virtues of Mr. Pitt.

Complete wet and dry Docks, Arsenals, and a Magazine, are to be made at Placentia, on the Arrival of Governor Palliser at Newfoundland.

July 5. Thursday his Excellency James Wright, Esq; Gentleman of the Bed-Chamber to the King, and Nephew to the Lord Chancellor, had his Audience of Leave, being in a few Days to set out for Venice, as his Majesty's Minister to that Republick; and at the same Time had the Honour of Knighthood conferred upon him by his Majesty.

We hear that Paoli, the famous Corsican Chief, has sent over very advantageous Offers to any English Sea Officer who shall engage in his Service.

A few Days ago, the Reverend Mr. Leveritz embarked at Guernsey, with 90 French Protestants, for West-Florida.

We hear the Frame-Work and Materials of two new Sloops, about twenty-five Tons each, are to be sent out in the Dolphin Man of War, to be put together by the Ship-Carpenters on their Arrival at the new-discovered Island, which are intended to be sent for the Discovery of the Continent, supposed not to be far off.

So much is this Kingdom growing into Estimation with a rival Nation, that we are assured there are no less than ten Times the Number of French Nobility now in Town, to what there has been of English at any one Time within these 20 Years in Paris.

A few Days since died at Worcester, Mr. Baker, by Trade a Baker, supposed to be a larger and more corpulent Man than the late Edward Bright. His Coffin measured seven Feet over at the broadest Part, was bigger than an ordinary Hearse, and was so large that Part of the Wall of the House was obliged to be pulled down in order to get it out; it is supppposed to be able to contain twenty Bushels Measure, and was carried to the Grave by twenty stout Men.

A dreadful Fire broke out at Warsaw on the eighth ult. which occasioned the King to issue an Edict the next Day, ordering all the Proprietors of Wooden Houses in that City and Suburbs, to pull them down within a certain Time, and rebuild them with Stone.

A few Days since came on a Trial before Lord Mansfield in the King's Bench, Westminster, wherein Dr. Shebberre was Plaintiff, and a Gentleman of Fortune, Defendant, relative to the Doctor's writing Notes and preparing some Letters, lately published, for the Press; when after a long Hearing, a Verdict of 500 l. was given for the Plaintiff.

Philip Carteret, Esq; who was a Lieutenant in the Dolphin with Commodore Byron on his late Expedition, is appointed to the Command of the Swallow Sloop lying at Chatham.

According to Letters from Legborn, the Divan at Constantinople had remonstrated warmly to some foreign Ministers at the Porte, on Account of the Assistance which certain European Powers had afforded to the Georgian Rebels, in carrying on the War against the Grand Signior.

We hear from Liverpool, that a Number of the poorer Sort of Inhabitants, who used formerly to be employed in the Smuggling Trade, had embarked for the new British Settlements in America.

July 7. On Tuesday last, the Lords of the Admiralty were pleased to appoint James Wallace, Esq; to be Captain, and Mr. Thomas Hallam, to be Lieutenant, of his Majesty's Ship the Dolphin, which is shortly to sail with the Honourable Commodore Byron.

Portsmouth, June 24. On Sunday Part of Keppel's Regiment arrived at Gosport; the Remainder are expected daily, in order to embark for North-America.

KINGSTON, (in JAMAICA) June 7.

We are assured, from undoubted Authority, that a free Trade with the Spaniards to this Island is opened.—The good Effects of such a salutary Proceeding will soon be happily experienced, as we may now expect to see Spanish Dollars a little more current.

BRIDGE-TOWN, (in Barbados) July 12.

At a Meeting of the General Assembly, on Monday, the 7th of July, 1766.

The Clerk presented to the House a Message from his Honour the President to the House, which had been delivered to him by the Clerk of the Council, with a Letter from Mr. Secretary Conway to the Commander in Chief of this Island, to be laid before the House.

Ordered, That the said Message be read, which was done in these Words, viz.

"His Honour recommends to the Consideration of the Assembly the Letter herewith sent, which he received from Mr. Secretary Conway. His Honour and the Board are of Opinion, it will be proper to present a joint Address of the President, Council and Assembly, to his Majesty, on the Repeal of the Stamp-Act. His Honour has appointed a Committee, consisting of the Council Board, or any three of them, to join a Committee of the Assembly, if they concur for the above Purposes."

Ordered, That Mr. Conway's Letter be read, which was done accordingly.

The House then took the Presidents Message into Consideration; and on the Motion of John-Gay Alleyne, Esq; seconded by Henry Beekles, Esq; it was made a Question, whether any Address of Thanks is necessary to be presented by the Legislature of this Island, to his Majesty, on the Repeal of the Stamp-Act, so evidently as that Repeal appears to us to be an Act of Justice only to the Colonies? Which Question being accordingly put, the House were unanimously of Opinion, that no Address was necessary to be presented on that Occasion.

Resolved, That the House do not concur with the Council, in an Address for that Purpose.

PHILADELPHIA, July 17.

By Captain Maloney, from Halifax, we hear that a large French sloop was carried in there, and condemned, being taken on an illicit Trade.

NEW-YORK, July 24.

Extract of a Letter from Pensacola, dated June 14, 1766.

"I do not find the Trade of this Place in the least mended; the Spaniards are at New-Orleans, but the French Governor commands there.—The River is open to English and French, but no Spaniard to come into it.—Time must discover what these Politics mean.—Money so scarce, that there is not sufficient to supply Necessaries."

August 7. We hear from Dutchess County, that the Grand Jury had found a Bill of Indictment against Pandeghast for High Treason, and that he was to have his Trial Yesterday.

From the DOMINICA GAZETTE.

Charlotte-Town, June 25.

On Thursday Evening passed by here, four French Ships of War, viz. two of the Line, and two Frigates, supposed to be the same which were equipped at Brest in March last and destined to carry Provisions and Warlike Stores to America. On board one of these Ships, it is said, is Prince Mabazon, who is going to St. Domingo, in order to take Possession of that Part of the Island now inhabited by the Spaniards, and which his Catholic Majesty has ceded to the Crown of France, in Lieu of the Province of Louisiana. So that now the whole Continent of America, is under the Subjection of the English, Dutch, Spaniards and Portuguese.

A Gentleman lately arrived from Martinico has informed us of the following Changes in the French Ministry, viz. the Duke de Prassin, Minister of the Marine; the Duke de Choiseul, Minister at War and foreign Affairs; and Mr. Dubuq du Ferret, Deputy of the Colony of Martinico.

August 14. On Sunday Night last, the Mast or Flag-Staff, erected on the Common, at the Time of publick Rejoicing on his Majesty's Birth-Day, for the Repeal of the Stamp-Act, left standing inscribed with the Names of his Majesty, Mr. Pitt, and Liberty, as a Monument of that happy Event, and Gratitude to those by whom it was accomplished, was cut down by some of the Soldiers belonging to the 28th Regiment, quartered in the Barracks; and as it appeared by several Depositions, to have been done by Way of Insult to the Town, it gave great Uneasiness, and next Day occasioned two Frays between the Town-People and the Soldiers, a small Number of each, in which two or three were wounded, and several hurt, by the Soldiers. It appears by many Affidavits, that the Soldiers were intirely the Aggressors: And the People are in general very uneasy that such a Number of armed Men, without any visible Occasion for them, are stationed among us, and suffered to patrol the Street, as in a military or conquered Town. The Examinations relating to these Disorders, not being finished, we must refer our Readers to our next, for further Particulars.

August 21. We hear that after the Examination of a great Number of Witnesses, respecting the late Disturbance between some of the Citizens, and a Party of Soldiers, the Corporal and Drum-Major of the Regiment, who appeared to be the chief Authors of the Disturbances, were bound over to the Quarter-Session.—We hear these Differences are likely to have an amicable Conclusion; for that at a Meeting between the Magistrates of the City, and the Officers of the Regiment, in the Presence of the Governor, they declared their Desire of living in Harmony with the Citizens, and said, that upon any Misbehaviour of the Soldiers, under their Command, they should either be tried by a Court Martial, or delivered up to the civil Authority, as the Magistrates should require.——They only desired the Soldiers should not be ill-treated or molested, which was promised on the Part of the Magistrates.

We hear from Dutchess County, that Penderghast has been condemned for High-Treason, and was to suffer Death in six Weeks. The usual severe Sentence for Treason was pronounced on him.

August 25. Yesterday his Excellency our Governor, with his Lady and Daughter, embarked for Albany, having some Days before been taken Leave of by all the most Respectable in the City.

Governor Carlton, of Quebec, Brigadier-General for the Northern Departments, who came over in the Packet, proceeded to his Appointment on board Governor Moore's Sloop.

Last Week, a Soldier belonging to the 28th Regiment, was sentenced by a Court-Martial to, and did, receive 500 Lashes for assaulting a Gentleman in the Street, Wednesday Evening last, which is a convincing Proof that the Military are determined to give ample Satisfaction to the Inhabitants for any Insult that may be offered them by the Soldiers, on proper Application to the Commanders of any of the Regiments.

The Duke of Cumberland Packet, Captain Goodridge, soon after he left this Coast in May last, sprung a Leak, and bore away for the West-Indies, but having the good Luck to fall in with a Sloop from New-England bound to the Southward, Captain Goodridge, to serve the Crown, engaged with the Captain for a certain Sum of Money, as well as to take the Cargo at Market Price, to see him safe to Falmouth, where they both arrived safe, after a Passage of 40 Days from this Port.

BOSTON, AUGUST 4.

We hear from Newbury-Port, that the Inhabitants of that Town, at a Meeting last Week, gave their Representative Instructions to use his Influence, that the Loss of the Sufferers in the Town of Boston be paid out of the publick Treasury.—We also hear from Almsbury, that that Town had done the same.

We hear that the General Assembly of the Province of New-Hampshire, in their last Session, resolved that a dutiful and loyal Address be prepared to be presented to our most gracious Sovereign, and to both Houses of Parliament, upon the happy Repeal of the Stamp-Act, which was done accordingly.

The Grenada Frigate, Captain Whitwood, who arrived at Casco-Bay the 14th ult. from London, spoke with the Peggy Sloop, [Time not mentioned] John Tillock, Master, in Lat. 31, 30. Long. 66, 12, W. bound from Maryland to the River Mississippi, with 225 French Refugees, all well on board.

By Captain Wier from Quebec, we learn, that all Sorts of Provisions were exceeding plenty. Several large Ships had sailed from thence for Europe, laden with Wheat,

August 18. Last Week a Whaling Sloop arrived here from the Streights of Belleiſle, by whom we learn, that there has been but ſmall Succeſs in that Fiſhery this Seaſon, not above ſeventeen Whales having been caught, among the many Veſſels which were fitted out for that Purpoſe:—We alſo learn, that the Cod Fiſhery on the Labrador Coaſt, has been greatly interrupted and broke up by one of his Majeſty's Frigates, who preſſed one Man out of each Veſſel, and obliged them all to leave the Coaſt, after having taken from ſome what was found valuable on board, and of others, deſtroying the ſmall Quantity of Fiſh they had already catched, beating and abuſing ſome of the Skippers for demanding the Reaſon of this Treatment towards them, from whom they rather expected Encouragement and Protection.—'Tis ſaid the Capt. of the Frigate acted in conſequence of Orders from the Commanding Officer on that Station; and one of his Orders was, Not to ſuffer any American Veſſel to fiſh for any other than Whales, in any of the Ports or Coaſt of Newfoundland, lying between Point Riche and Cape Bonaviſta."

CHARLES-TOWN, SEPTEMBER 16.

BY Letters from the Cherokee Country, we are informed, That the White People mentioned in our laſt, were killed by a Party of Northward Indians, who ſtill continue their Incurſions againſt the Cherokees, notwithſtanding the Steps taken by Sir William Johnſon, and Mr. Steuart, to effect a Peace between them. The Son of Attakullakulla, and ſeven others, his Relations, were lately killed by a Party who fell upon them as they were picking Berries at a ſmall Diſtance from their Habitations. Ouconnoſtota, or the Great-Warrior, and ſeveral other Headmen, were lately at Fort Prince-George on a Viſit to Mr. Price the Commandant, who delivered and explained to them a Talk from the Superintendant, relating, among other Things, to the War between the Creeks and Choctaws: Ouconnoſtota ſaid they were both Rogues, and might fight it out between themſelves. It appeared the Creeks had been tampering with the Cherokees, in order to induce them to take Part with them againſt the Choctaws.

The Snow Sally, Capt. Magnus Miller, from the Muſquito-ſhore, for Briſtol, put in here laſt Wedneſday in Diſtreſs, having ſprung a Leak.

Yeſterday a Brig arrived here from St. Euſtatia, having loſt her Main-maſt in the late violent Gale of Wind that happened in the Weſt-Indies, as mentioned in our laſt: She was drove from her Anchors in the Harbour of St. Euſtatia.
